

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 2011

BiS

businessinsavannah.com | business news for the creative coast

JESSICA MUMFORD is responsible for the care and safety of the works and permanent collection at each of the Telfair Museums' three sites. 4 >>>

Kelly Waters owns KELLY INTERIOR DESIGN and likes it because she's "been kind of a creative soul since I was a child." 6

Gatling receives Women of Color STEM Award Honor/Award: Vicki Gatling

Gatling was awarded a 2011 Women of Color (STEM) Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics

Gatling

in the category of professional achievement — Government — U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Savannah District.

Background: Gatling, who received the award in the category of Professional Achievement — Government, has more than 23 years federal service in a variety of positions in the engineering arena. She is responsible for executing a program that averages $200 million a year. Gatling was also instrumental in the execution of more than $100 million in American Recovery and Reinvestment Act-funded projects.

New HSF executive committee and board members

Honor/Award: Historic Savannah Foundation installed a new executive committee and inducted new board members on Nov. 17.

Executive officers for 2011-2012 include: Chair, Bill Lovett, president at Hussy Gay Bell & DeYoung; vice chair, Kathy Horne, partner at Inglesby, Falligant, Horne, Courington & Chisholm, P.C.; parliamentarian, Hue Thomas III; secretary, Ebony Simpson; treasurer, Danny Mahfet, partner at Karp,

Lovett

Horne

Thomas

Simpson

Mahfet

Cay

Lamar

Nelsen

Ronning & Tindol, P.C. New board members are Christopher Cay, founder of Cay Insurance Services; Sarah Lamar, a partner at HunterMaclean; and Peter Nelsen, a real estate agent at Seabolt Brokers LLC.

Sebrell Smith Honored by online Magazine

Honor/Award: National online magazine, The Daily Meal, recently