Historic Savannah Foundation Achieves GuideStar Exchange Gold Participation Level

SAVANNAH, Ga. – Historic Savannah Foundation (HSF), a nonprofit historic preservation organization, today received the GuideStar Exchange Gold participation level, a leading symbol of transparency and accountability provided by GuideStar USA, Inc., the premier source of nonprofit information. This level demonstrates HSF's deep commitment to responsible management and internal controls.

"HSF strives diligently to showcase our mission of historic preservation but also to be above-board with our supporters and constituents," said Daniel Carey, HSF president and CEO. "As a GuideStar Exchange participant, we are able to share a wealth of up-to-date information about our work to our supporters and GuideStar's immense online audience of nonprofits, grantmakers, individual donors, and the media."

To be awarded the GuideStar Exchange certification, HSF had to complete every required field of a nonprofit report page on www.guidestar.org for the gold level of participation.

"HSF is engaged in a variety of exciting initiatives in town, and we are proud to have another platform for communicating our advancement and progress," Carey said.

ABOUT GUIDESTAR EXCHANGE:

The GuideStar Exchange is an initiative designed to connect nonprofits with current and potential supporters. With millions of people coming to GuideStar to learn more about nonprofit organizations, the GuideStar Exchange allows nonprofits to share a wealth of up-to-date information with GuideStar's many audiences. Becoming a GuideStar Exchange participant is free of charge. To join, organizations need to update their report pages, completing all required fields for participation. The GuideStar Exchange level logos, acknowledged as symbols of transparency in the nonprofit sector, are displayed on all Exchange participants' nonprofit reports.

ABOUT HISTORIC SAVANNAH FOUNDATION:

Historic Savannah Foundation is a nonprofit historic preservation organization supported by a strong and dedicated membership. HSF was established in 1955 in order to save the 1820 Isaiah Davenport House from demolition. From this initial project, Historic Savannah Foundation launched a Revolving Fund which has since saved 360+ buildings. The mission of Historic Savannah Foundation is to preserve and protect Savannah's heritage through advocacy, education and community involvement.
