

HISTORIC SAVANNAH FOUNDATION OPENS NOMINATIONS FOR 2022 PRESERVATION AWARDS

JANUARY 20, 2022 – SAVANNAH, GA – Nominations are now being accepted for Historic Savannah Foundation’s 2022 Preservation Awards. Each May, HSF celebrates the area’s best preservation projects with a program that recognizes individuals, organizations, and companies who embody and practice excellence in preservation in Savannah and Chatham County.

Historic Savannah Foundation members who have completed a restoration project within the past three years, or who know of a restoration project that may be award-worthy are encouraged to submit a nomination.

Projects must have been completed within the past three years, and entrants must have the consent of the property owner for a nomination. Self-nominations will be accepted. Nominations that were previously submitted but were not selected to receive an award may be revised, expanded, and resubmitted. To be eligible for an award, nominated projects must have adhered to the applicable Secretary of the Interior’s Standards for Rehabilitation. For more information on these standards, visit www.nps.gov/tps/standards.htm.

The general evaluation criteria include:

1. Quality and degree of difficulty of the nominee’s project or effort.
2. Degree to which the nominee’s project or effort is unusual or pioneering or serves as an example that influences good preservation practices.
3. Demonstrable or measurable impact of nominee’s project on the community.

A jury of local professionals with representation from the fields of architecture, preservation, academia and planning is invited to review nominations for HSF’s Preservation Awards.

Nominations should fall under at least one of the following categories: restoration, rehabilitation, new construction, stewardship, craftsmanship or archaeology.

The deadline for all award nominations is 5 p.m. Tuesday, March 1, 2022. Mailed entries must be postmarked or dropped off at HSF by this date. The application cost is $50 for HSF members. Non-members are asked to join HSF by visiting <http://www.myhsf.org/giving/general-membership/> prior to submitting the application. Preservation Award recipients will be notified by the end of March. The nominator or primary contact will be notified for those not selected. Award announcements and presentation will be made at HSF's Preservation Awards Ceremony in May. Nomination forms can be found at <https://www.myhsf.org/what-we-do/preservation-awards/>

“Our jury panel looks forward to viewing a diverse selection of nominated projects. These projects all contribute to the preservation of Savannah's historic resources and the understanding of our city's history, so it's an honor to get inside knowledge of how they took shape. Well-executed preservation efforts really do impact the entire community, and we're grateful that so many in Savannah understand that and support it through their actions,” HSF President and CEO Sue Adler said.

Historic Savannah Foundation saves buildings, places and stories that define Savannah's past, present, and future. Following its formation in 1955, HSF started a Revolving Fund to save endangered historic properties, now totaling more than 400 buildings throughout several of Savannah's historic districts. HSF has grown into one of the most respected local preservation organizations in the country — emphasizing not only the protection of individual historic buildings but also the revitalization of blighted neighborhoods. HSF demonstrates the cultural, social and economic benefits of preservation as good public policy by proving that preservation and progress go hand-in-hand.
