

HISTORIC SAVANNAH FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES 2022 PRESERVATION AWARD WINNERS

Thursday, May 5, 2022 – SAVANNAH, GA – Earlier this evening, Historic Savannah Foundation (HSF) continued their month-long celebration of preservation in the Savannah community with their annual Preservation Awards at the Charles H. Morris Center. As attendees enjoyed dinner, drinks and music, the nonprofit organization presented awards to individuals and organizations whose contributions demonstrate excellence in preservation throughout Savannah and Chatham County.

“We are thrilled to honor the people and organizations who preserve Savannah’s history and bring recognition to their hard work,” said Sue Adler, HSF’s President and CEO. “We are so grateful to the recipients of our Preservation Awards for keeping the history and visitor appeal of Savannah alive. I’d also like to say thank you to all of our staff and sponsors for making this evening one to remember.”

Preservation Award nominations were judged by an independent, all-volunteer jury selected for their expertise in the realm of architecture, preservation and design. The jury used the following general criteria:

- Quality and degree of difficulty of the nominee's project
- Degree to which the nominee's project or effort is unusual or pioneering, or serves as an example that influences good preservation practices
- Demonstrable or measurable impact of nominee's project on the community

HSF's 2022 Preservation Awards are made possible by our sponsors: Corcoran Austin Hill Realty, Brooks Construction Group, LLC, C.S. Hurd Electrical, Ethos Preservation, Holton

Plumbing, Inc., Landmark Preservation, LLC, Tharpe Engineering Group, Wright Square Bistro, Lesley Francis PR and Savannah Bike Tours.

Historic Savannah Foundation, a leading nonprofit preservation and cultural institution, saves buildings, places, and stories that define Savannah's past, present, and future. Following its formation in 1955, the organization started a Revolving Fund to save endangered historic properties, now totaling 410 buildings throughout several of Savannah's historic districts. HSF continues to build capacity within its operations, secure new financial resources, improve its image and visibility, and increase public policy efforts to protect Savannah's historic districts.
