Davenport House Museum - a property of HSF

WE SAVE buildings, places, and stories
-that define-
SAVANNAH'S past, present, & FUTURE

ABOUT US

For 70 years Historic Savannah Foundation has worked tirelessly to preserve and save the unique historic environment that has earned Savannah an international reputation. HSF is the oldest, and principal organization dedicated to historic preservation in the city. Founded in 1955 by a group of seven strong-willed women to save the 1820 Isaiah Davenport House from demolition, the Foundation has become a national model for Preservation. HSF is one of the strongest local voices - advocating for good public policy, strengthening neighborhoods, and putting its money where it's mouth by using its renowned Revolving Fund to purchase endangered, vacant historic homes and buildings. In short...making a difference. You can too! Please support our work.

People, places & stories that define SAVANNAH

Historic Savannah Foundation's Lecture Series features lectures covering a wide range of local and regional guest speakers and topics.
